Parenting Sunday Electives

May 5, 12 & 19

Parenting: Equipping Our Children To Face Today's World

In the Choir Room

Taught by Summers McMurray

It's daunting to think about raising kids in today's world. Over three weeks, we will discuss how to relationally engage with your children and, with God's help, to shape their character to reflect Jesus and not the world in which we live.

Parenting Our Parents: Biblical Principals of Engaging with Our Aging

In B224

Taught by Clay Harrington

Come for three weeks and consider some principals of caring for our aging parents and how to deal with grief. While such a topic cannot be contained in a three-week elective, be encouraged that we can become more aware of God's grace and strength in times of weakness for many of us. All ages are welcome even those who are more experienced in life. As J. I. Packer said in his book, Finishing our Course with Joy, "...we should think of ourselves as embodied souls that are also ensouled bodies..."

Wednesday Morning: May 1 at 9:45 a.m. (last class for this term) in the Chapel

Members are invited to bring their friends and neighbors to study and discuss God's word together in the context of both lecture time and small groups. This year we will be studying The Gospel According to Luke. Class materials cost $10. Our teaching team includes Stephanie Edick, Paula Slack, Julia Christenson and Penny Cole. See God's blueprint for the Gospel unfold as we study the book of Isaiah. Called "the evangelical prophet" because of his numerous predictions of the coming Messiah and the salvation He would accomplish, Isaiah faithfully brought God's message to a people who resisted it for more than sixty years. Although Isaiah prophesied in the decades surrounding 700 BC, the warnings and promises he issued have direct application to our lives today.
