Summer Review

Print and cut out the review pictures.
Card stock is best, but regular paper will work!

Start by saying something like: I am going to show you some pictures. The pictures will help us remember some of the people who believed God's promises that we have learned about this summer.

- Start with the picture of Adam and Eve (1). Who are these people? (Adam and Eve) God promised that one day someone very special would be born into their family. Do you remember who that would be? (the Savior) That's right. Have whisper with you "God keeps His promises!"
- Hold up the picture of Noah praising God after the flood waters dried up (2). Can you tell me this person's name? (Noah) What did God promise Noah? (to save Noah and his family from the flood; to never again destroy the earth with a flood.) Have them slowly chant God keeps His promises!
- Hold up the picture of the elderly Abraham and Sarah and baby Isaac (3). Who are the people in this family? (Abraham, Sarah, baby Isaac) What promise did God give to Abraham? (that he and Sarah would have a child) God gave them baby Isaac in their old age. Nothing is too hard for God to do! Sing God keeps His promises to the tune of Loudon Bridge.
- Show the picture of Jacob and his family living in Egypt (4) Whose family is this? (Jacob's) Point out Jacob and Joseph in the picture. Remind them that God had promised that His people would grow in number and become a great nation. How did God keep His promise to Jacob and his family? (God used Joseph to save Jacob's family from starving to death. He brought them to Egypt so all the family could get back together again.) Together, quickly say God keeps His promises!
- Point to the boy in picture 5. Who is this? (Samuel) Samuel listened and obeyed when God spoke to him. Samuel trusted God because he knew that God always kept His Word. Lead your child in saying God keeps His promises!
- Show the picture of David praising God (6). Who is this person? (King David) King David trusted God's promise that the Savior would be born into his family many years later. All together, loudly say God keeps His promises!
- Show the picture of Mary and Joseph and baby Jesus. (7) Who is in the manger? (Jesus) Did God keep His promise to send a Savior? (Yes!) All together say God Keeps His promises!
